

Teachers' Scholarship Application: "Accès Cinéma Africain" - April 22-25, 2010

*** ** *** ** *** ** *** **

Penobscot School's AFRICAN FILM ACCESS immersion at Vues d'Afrique Festival in Montreal uses contemporary Caribbean and African film and video documents as unique contexts for French language study.

Program Director: Abe Waldstein, Ph.D. Anthropology, Columbia 1984, waldstein@together.net

2010 French instructors: Julia Schulz, M.A. Anthropology, McGill 1985

Racine Diongue, a Canadian, born in Senegal and versed in the arts of West Africa.

TUITION: $210 (incls. films; French classes; classroom and related festival materials)

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS APRIL 1.

Registration is on-line at www.cinema-african.org.

*** ** *** **

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Eligible: Maine teachers of world languages.

Limited need-based scholarships are available on a first-come, first served basis, and thanks to the generous support of the David & Eleanore Rukin Philanthropic Foundation.

Scholarship Applications should be directed to Patti Luchetti, Exec. Dir. at patti@languagelearning.org with the following information.

1-Name

2-Profession

3-Address at home

4-Telephone at home

5-email at home

6-Address at work

7-Telephone/Fax at work

8-email at work

9-Describe your experience and at your current position.

10-Describe briefly your need for this scholarship.

11-How do you hope to use the information and experiences from this course?

*** ** *** **

Penobscot School

28 Gay St., Rockland, Me 04841

207.594.1084

207.594.1067 fx

info@languagelearning.org

<http://www.cinema-african.org/>